Chapter 330: The Infinite Spiral of Creation

The Absolute Realm stood as the centerpiece of the multiverse, glowing with an ever-brighter light. Sung Jin-Woo's power had reached the pinnacle, but the God of Creation, Life, and Abundance continued to push the boundaries of existence. His divine essence intertwined with the fabric of reality itself, sparking a new wave of creation and innovation.

Unveiling the Spiral Nexus

Using his newfound third divine jewel, Sung Jin-Woo created a new structure at the heart of the Absolute Realm: the Spiral Nexus.

Features of the Spiral Nexus:

1. Infinite Layers:

A multi-dimensional structure containing infinite layers of connected realms, each reflecting a different aspect of Sung Jin-Woo's divinity.

Realms include domains of creation, life, abundance, shadow, and power.

2. Central Core:

Powered by fragments of Sung Jin-Woo's essence, the core links every realm and being under his dominion.

It acts as a hub for divine communication, strategy, and energy distribution.

3. Cosmic Archives:

A library containing the entire history of creation, past, present, and future.

Managed by Archivist Celestials, beings created specifically to catalog and preserve knowledge.

Empowering His Creations

Sung Jin-Woo used the Spiral Nexus to amplify the power of his creations, ensuring their strength and resilience in the face of any threat.

Enhancements Across Realms:

1. Shadow Soldiers:

Upgraded to wield weapons forged from the Celestial Forgefields.

New abilities to manipulate time and space in battle.

2. Dragonkins and Shadowkins:

Blessed with enhanced mana cores, making them more powerful than ever.

3. Divine Birds:

Granted the ability to traverse realms effortlessly, acting as messengers and scouts for the Absolute Realm.

4. Heavenly and Dark Apostles:

Their wings now radiated with Sung Jin-Woo’s divine energy, making them symbols of hope and power across all realms.

The Spread of Divinity

Sung Jin-Woo’s divine power now extended to every corner of the multiverse, creating a seamless network of realms, lifeforms, and civilizations.

Impact on the Multiverse:

1. Unified Energy:

All beings connected to Sung Jin-Woo felt a constant flow of divine energy, which enhanced their strength and wisdom.

Even the most distant realms flourished with newfound prosperity.

2. Inter-Realm Cooperation:

Civilizations from different realms began working together, sharing resources, knowledge, and innovations.

3. Endless Creation:

New realms and dimensions continuously emerged, each uniquely tailored to the needs of the multiverse’s inhabitants.

Sung Jin-Woo’s Reflection

Sitting atop his throne in the Umbra Citadel, Sung Jin-Woo gazed at the Spiral Nexus. His All-Seeing Eyes revealed the harmony spreading across the multiverse, yet he remained vigilant.

“The multiverse grows stronger,” he thought. “But true peace requires constant vigilance and preparation.”

As he spoke, his divine energy resonated through the Spiral Nexus, ensuring that his creations and followers were ready for anything the future might hold.

The multiverse was no longer a fragile collection of realms—it was an interconnected tapestry of strength, resilience, and unity, all under the watchful eye of Sung Jin-Woo, the eternal Absolute One.
